

Thurgood Marshall School of Law
Institute for International and Immigration Law
Black Law Students Association and the Student Bar Association
Present

The Global Black Woman:
Reflections on Roots, Religion, Culture, and Identity

Tuesday, Sept. 4, 2012, 3-4:45 p.m., Rooms 106 & 107,
Thurgood Marshall School of Law

Claris Harbon,

Doctor of Civil Law Candidate and O'Brien Fellow,
The Center for Human Rights and Legal Pluralism,
McGill University Faculty of Law; Pierre Elliot Trudeau Scholar;
Former Clinical Law Professor, Tel Aviv University, Buchmann
Faculty of Law; Mizrahi Poet and Human Rights Lawyer, Israel

Elizabeth Brown-Guillory, Ph.D.,
Distinguished Professor of Theatre; Associate Provost/Associate Vice President for Academic and Faculty Affairs, Texas Southern University

Please join us for an enlightening discussion on
Who is the global black woman in the 21st century?

Kamille Wolff Dean, Associate Professor,
Thurgood Marshall School of Law

Facilitator: Asmara Tekle, Professor and Associate Dean, Thurgood Marshall School of Law

Syvondia Bailey, 2L President, Thurgood Marshall School of Law

Hors d'oeuvres reception to follow: Lobby, Thurgood Marshall School of Law

Join the discussion LIVE at tsu.webex.com*

Meeting name—TMSL

Meeting Password—123456

* Some mobile users may require an application download

